

ITT Monument Dedication

22 June 2017-Narrative and Photos

Narrative Summary

- On Thursday June 22, 2017 at 10:00 a.m. dedication ceremonies were conducted at the memorial park of Camp Johnson in front of the Museum.
- Ceremonies lasted approximately one hour.
- All local MCITTA members were notified and invited along with members of the Intelligence Battalion stationed at Camp LeJeune.
- Sufficient local news coverage was invited. Four TV stations and three news journals covered the ceremonies. The local Mayor proclaimed June 22nd to be designated as MCITTA Day in Jacksonville, N.C.

The Memorial

Specifics of the Ceremony

- The ceremonies started precisely at 10:a.m. and concluded at approximately 45 minutes later.
- There were approximately 30 to 35 folks attending including 10 local MCITTA members.
- Coverage was extensive with three daily news journals and four TV stations. The TV stations included CBS,ABC,Time Warner and the Onslow county local news station
- . After a short introduction by Col. Gobar, Howard Kahn gave an introductory history of ITT and Harry Todd followed with the principle address. Several interested people attended along with the wives, children and grand children of some of our deceased members.

Group Photo of Attendees

